SPION'S KOP CAPTURED

BULLER'S DESPATCH REPORTING BRITISH VICTORY LAID BEFORE THE QUEEN AND CABINET.

LONDON, Jan. 25.—Gen. Buller's report of the capture of Spion Kop was laid before the Queen and Cabinet officials as soon as received.

It is difficult to exaggerate the sudden change the news of victory has made in the atmosphere of the military clubs. War officials believe this success insures the speedy relief of Ladysmith. Crowds cheered the news. Gen. Buller's official despatch to the War Office was as follows:

SPEARMAN'S CAMP, Jan. 25, 12.10 Morning.

"Gen. Warren's troops last night occupied Spion's Kop, surprising the small garrison, who fled.

"It has been held by us all day, although we were heavily attacked, especially by a very annoying shell fire.

"I fear our casualties are considerable, and I have to inform you with regret that Gen. Woodgate was dangerously wounded.

"Gen. Warren is of the opinion that he has rendered the enemy's position untenable.

"The men are splendid."

LONDON CROWDS CHEER AT BULLER'S NEWS OF CAPTURE OF SPION KOP BY BRITISH.

LONDON, Jan. 25, 2.22 P. M.—The jubilation over Gen. Warren's achievement in capturing Spion Kop Tuesday night is heightened by the realization that his success is only provisional, as it appears clear from Gen. Buller's despatch that the Boers fully recognize the strategic importance of Spion Kop and that at the time his message was sent off they had not abandoned the idea of recapturing the position. Nevertheless a heavy load of anxiety has been removed from the nation, and there is a general expectation that the British have succeeded in keeping the hill all day long, they will manage to retain it until Gen. Warren plants guns enough on it to dominate the Boer trenches right and left.

BIG TASK AHEAD.
There is the usual disposition here to exaggerate the importance of the point scored. But the best informed people realize that Gen. Buller still has a big task ahead of him. The Boers are still in the position of attacking the British, and the British are still in the position of being attacked. The Boers are still in the position of attacking the British, and the British are still in the position of being attacked. Seventeen Trains Carry Armed Men to Frankfort Capitol.

Protest Laid Before the Legislature—Fierce Conflict at Hand.

(Special to The Evening World.)
FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 25.—Seventeen trains have landed hundreds of men armed with Winchester rifles here; one train alone had over 1,000 men. These men come from Bell, Allen, Knox, Harlan, Whiteley, Metcalfe and Edmonson counties. Many of them are State soldiers, but hundreds are not. They marched to the Capitol square and erected tents there and camped for a long stay. A mass-meeting was held at the steps of the Capitol and resolutions adopted protesting against the election contests on partisan basis. This resolution was laid before the Legislature. Gov. Taylor is much excited over the arrival of these armed men and a serious conflict is feared. It is said the deputy sheriffs are being armed and brought into town by the Democrats. Gov. Taylor disclaims all knowledge of the purposes of the invaders. Notice has been served on the Goebel men that it is not the intention of the Republicans to see men honestly elected thrown out for Goebel nominees. The action of Speaker Trimble in ordering the clearing of the galleries this afternoon is bound to lead to trouble. Ex-Secretary of State Charles Finley called the meeting to order and made a speech urging the men to act in an orderly way. He referred to the contest in strong language. Steve Sharp, ex-State Treasurer, presided over the meeting. His remarks were temperate. A loud shout went up after the resolutions were read. The resolutions drafted and which were presented to the Legislature to-day read:

rights, not as derived to us therefrom but as "inherent."
Our property we may alienate from ourselves and our children, but our liberty is a heritage to us in trust for all generations, and we may neither surrender nor encumber it. We declare against the prerogative, without freely communicating our thoughts and opinions, and to assemble together in peaceable manner for our common good and the good of our fellowmen of Kentucky. More especially do we demand our right and authority conferred on us by Almighty power, and not otherwise.
